Dear parents and carers of Year 5 & 6,

RE: World book day book - The doomsday date by Faridah Abike-Iyimide

We are aware some children selected 'The doomsday date' book to exchange for their £1 World Book Day token. The book is advertised on the website for 'independent readers' and did not specify an age range. On closer inspection we realise the book is for teen readers and there is some inappropriate content including swear words. We apologise for not noticing this sooner.

We are asking for all copies of the book to be returned in exchange for another book (all age appropriate). Some of the Year 5 books have already been collected by Florie. Any Year 6 books should be brought back to school.

We apologise for any inconvenience.

Yours sincerely,

Mark Owen
